Deputies in City Courts Appear Before Chief Clerk Smith to Answer to Allegations of Illegally Collecting Fees.

The four City Court clerks charged with irregularities appeared before Chief Clerk Thomas F. Smith late this after oon to answer to the charges drawn up by direction of the Board of Justices of the City Court.

The four are Theodore A. Hamilton Thomas Carroll, Henry P. McGown, jr. and John C. Foley. Each is charged with collecting fees illegally from lawyers in cases tried in their respective

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to-day affirmed the conviction of Louis Zabor, for a misdemensor under section 280 of the Penal Code, which forbids the sales of cigars or cigarettes to children under sixteen years of age.

Zabor was convicted of selking a package of cigarettes to Edward Glück, eleven years old, and was fined 510, with the alternative of three days imprisonment. The Appellate Division affirms the conviction. Justice Van Brunt, O'Brien and Ingraham concuring, MeLaughlin and Hatch opposing.

President Mahon, of the Amalogous match, issued another statement today, in which he said that the acts of the strikers must not from now on be laid to the unions.

"Pepper and Jencks," he said, "have placed themselves in a position where they have forfeited all right to the support of union men. Their acts are now the acts of individuis."

One of the first of the old hands to apply for restoration to duty at the downtown effices was George Welling, who had been a guard for nearly twenty twenty before normal conditions, who had been a guard for nearly twenty twenty of the officials, but told he would have to take his chances with the others.
